Borderlines

Daniel Melo

Through different facets of the U.S. immigration system, Borderlines explores how power and profit are perpetuated by the divisions between migrant and citizen and the resulting dehumanization of both. The familiar, heartbreaking stories of dangerous treks, migrant exploitation, asylum, family separation and detention all have their roots in the material conditions of the dominant economic system. Immigrants' place in American democracy has long been intertwined with questions of cheap labor and exploitation.

Zero Books; 2021-07-30; Emigration & Immigration/Human Rights/Labor & Industrial Relations; Pb-9781789045062, $14.95/£10.99, 144pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789045079, $12.99/£8.99.

The Ego And Its Hyperstate

Eliot Rosenstock

The Ego And Its Hyperstate is a unified theory of psychological and ethical egoism which posits self-interest. The dialectical dream theory sets its sights against capitalist notions of the self-interest contra the other, not simply with moralism, but with a more accurate analysis of the subject of self-interest than has been provided by capitalists and anarchist theorists alike. Through the lens of psychoanalysis and Hegelian dialectical logic, the process of self-interest as the ground of all human existence reveals itself.

Hothouse Utopia

Ryan Gunderson

What is to be done when the future's already ablaze?

"The passage from radical theory to transformative practice may seem today more strewn with obstacles and bereft of guideposts than ever before. And yet, as Ryan Gunderson urges in his unsentimental account of 'hothouse utopianism,' the challenges we face in pursuing it should not lead us down the opposite path to quiescence and resignation." Martin Jay, Sidney Hellman Ehrman Professor Emeritus of History at the University of California, Berkeley, and author of Reason After Its Eclipse: On Late Critical Theory

Zero Books; 2021-10-29; Utopias/Political Economy/Social Theory; Pb-9781789047691, $21.95/£14.99, 216pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789047707, $17.99/£11.99.

Famous for Fifteen People

John William Daniel Robinson

The life and songs of singer-songwriter Momus during his time at Creation records and beyond.

"I'm amazed at the quality of his work: it's teaching me things even I didn't know, or had forgotten! It's also surprisingly funny. 2020 is a bit of a milestone year for Momus: my record about COVID-19, Vivid, is released in July, on the same day as Farrar, Straus & Giroux publish Niche: A Memoir in Pastiche, my autobiography. All this is kindling interest in my work as it's developed through four decades." Nicholas Currie (Momus)

Zero Books; 2021-10-29; Individual Composer & Musician/Pop Vocal/Lyrics; Pb-9781789047271, $25.95/£16.99, 297pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789047288, $20.99/£13.99.

CHINA, THE USA AND CAPITALISM'S LAST CRUSADE

WHEN SURVIVAL IS ALL THAT MATTERS

WILLIAM BRIGGS

China, the USA and Capitalism's Last Crusade

William Briggs

As the sun rises on China and sets on America, the world holds its breath.

"A book that anyone concerned about the human future would do well to read. Written lucidly and rich in its insights, it offers a distinctive interpretation of the US-China relationship, in many ways the defining relationship of our time. His thought provoking yet dispassionate analysis is a welcome antidote to the now fashionable but highly dangerous sport of China-bashing."

Professor Joseph Camilleri, Emeritus Professor of Politics at La Trobe University in Melbourne and one of Australia's leading International Relations scholars and authors.

Mariel Forde Clarke

A journey that will compel readers to view life after death in a completely different way. Where do our loved ones go after they die? This is the question that has traversed the universe for centuries and is considered one of life's greatest mysteries. No one book has been available to explore it all, until now.

"You have within your hands an exceptional, deeply healing book which I trust will touch many far and wide. The whole book is imbued with a deep love and gentle compassion, which reflects the very essence of its author who could not write the way she does unless she lived it." Pierre Pradervand, The Gentle Art of Blessing

Earth is a School

William Wildblood

It can be hard to discern spiritual purpose behind the upheavals in many areas of contemporary life, but it is there if one knows how to look.

"William Wildblood has a unique and admirable ability to set out spiritual ideas in a language that is interesting, engaging, and easy to read. In this work, he proposes that our apparently imperfect world is the ideal instrument for perfection of human souls. The book judiciously mixes Christianity, Buddhism, and Wildblood's own mystical experiences to make a lucid whole, and I thoroughly recommend it." Jonathan M. Pagan Portals - The Triple Goddess

Rachel Patterson

An updated approach for working with the Triple Goddess in modern times

The Triple Goddess has three facets: the maiden, the mother, and the crone. The Triple Goddess represents many things such as birth, life, death and the phases of the moon, waxing, full and waning. Whilst in the form we recognise it may well be a modern idea, it still gives a wonderful way of working with the goddess and her phases, to help us evolve and understand our own pathway through life and this journey can help you to embrace your own personal power.

Jhenah Telyndru

A reclamation of the true nature of Blodeuwedd, a widely misunderstood Welsh Goddess.

"Jhenah Telyndru has succeeded in beautifully weaving the complex, paradoxical nature of one of Wales' most beloved deities into a clear and inspirational work. Beautifully written with passion and devotion, this book is as fragrantly delicious and divine as the flowers that went into the magical making of Blodeuwedd" Kristoffer Hughes, Head of the Anglesey Druid Order, author of From the Cauldron Born: Exploring the magic of Welsh legend and Lore

Practically Pagan - An Alternative Guide to Gardening

Elen Sentier

Practically Pagan - An Alternative Guide to Gardening takes the spooky out of alternative and keeps the magic. Elen Sentier brings together, and expands on, recent scientific discoveries, and shows how close they are to the old ways that were labelled as superstition in the 20th century. Sentier's writing is accessible and opens up the down-to-earth practicalism of pagans as people of the land to all, for that's what the word pagan means, 'of the land'. Sentier doesn't preach or proselytise folk to become pagan, but brings to light how you've been thinking this way for years.

Practically Pagan - An Alternative Guide to Magical Living

Maria DeBlassie

This guide is full proverbial spells, daily conjurings, and mystical insights designed to help those in search of a little more magic in their day to day life, no complicated spells, expensive accessories, or experience required. That's the thing about everyday magic: it's always within reach, within the self, and in the world. Only not in the way readers might normally think. It's a less mumbling 'double double toil and trouble' over a cauldron and trouble and a more cooking a delicious soup in a beloved cast iron pot. It's simple. It's mundane. It's magic!

THE DECEPTIVE BRAIN

Blame, Punishment, and the Illusion of Choice

ROBERT L. TAYLOR, M.D.

Deceptive Brain, The

Robert L. Taylor M.D.

Preposterous as it sounds, we are not who we seem to be. Not even close.

At the heart of this misperception is our deep-seated conviction of free choice. Based on emerging neurobehavioral science findings, The Deceptive Brain makes the case for human experience as a narrative illusion—an executive summary of sorts—that emerges from an incredibly complex brain.

The Deceptive Brain drills down on what this finding means for the way we blame and punish, and presents a bold alternative approach to criminal justice based on blameless responsibility.

In The Way of the Rabbit, Mark Hawthorne gracefully helps us see our small-bodied, big-eared co-voyagers in a new light. If you love rabbits, he will deepen your understanding. If you don't love rabbits—you soon will." Carl Safina, author of Becoming Wild: How Animal Cultures Raise Families, Create Beauty, and Achieve Peace

Flying Springbok, The

Lionel Friedberg

A detailed history of one of the world's oldest airlines, and one that pioneered air travel between the African continent and the rest of the world.

"This is a fascinating tale that covers not only the development of air travel between Southern Africa and the rest of the world but also the too little-known evolution of the great, giant continent of Africa. The detailed aspects on aircraft and the amazingly courageous characters who flew the planes is spellbinding. This is a wonderful window on world history and is not to be missed." Captain Stuart Bird-Wilson, (retired),

DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING?

Dying and Death Examined

Robert Reiss

Death, Where Is Your Sting?

Robert Reiss

Death, Where Is Your Sting? is about both the process of dying and the question of what, if anything, happens after death.

"This reflective book shows with generosity and openness how an Anglican priest in the present day might confront the reality of death on the basis of the accumulated theology and philosophy which we now find upon our bookshelves. The author's own search for an understanding that appears both realistic and faithful gives life and character to the whole book and yields a particular attraction and value." Andrew Chandler.

Professor of Modern History, University of Chichester.

Seeds of Silence

R. Melvin Keiser

"This book is destined to be a classic of Quaker theology and spirituality. A deep dive into the roots, coherence, and originality of Quaker living, this text is a stunning articulation of what and how Quakers believe. Keiser draws on recent philosophers and early Quaker authors to articulate the contemporary vitality of Quaker insights regarding issues such as equality, interrelation, and mending creation. However, the brilliance of the book is not ultimately educational but invitational." Rev. Dr. Shannon Craigo-Snell

Professor of Theology Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary

Quaker Quicks - Hearing the Light

Rhiannon Grant

"Hearing the Light comes alive with Rhiannon Grant's love of language and her passion for Quakerism. These blend together in an unusual and delightful introduction to Quaker practice. The reader is taken on a rapid tour of the different meaning of key words to address the inward knowing of Friends. Her sense of humor (such as a reminder that a piece of God is not the same as a piece of pie) helps explain this inward dimension for those without a mystical bent." Margery Post Abbott, author of To Be Broken and Tender: A Quaker Theology for Today, Historical Dictionary of the Friends, and Walk Humbly, Serve Bold

Christian Alternative Books; 2021-09-24; Psychology of Religion/Theology/Quaker; Pb-9781789045048, $10.95/£6.99, 80pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789045055, $5.99/£3.99.

Hope and Witness in Dangerous Times

J. Brent Bill

"In these troubling times it's easy to feel 'I'm too insignificant to make a difference'. Brent Bill draws deeply on age-old and modern Quaker insights to show how each of us how can find our own way forward from hopelessness, and move through contemplation and onward into action. He suggests that effective engagement in large and small issues needs to be based on faith, prayer and love of other people (yes, every one of them!) And he firmly calls us to do something. As he says, 'After all, if faith matters, it has to matter now!'" John Lampen, author of Quaker Roots and Branches

Bringing God Up to Date

John Hunt

Religion is an essential part of our humanity. We all follow some form of religion, in the original meaning of the word. But organized religion establishes definitions, boundaries and hierarchies which the founders would be amazed by. Should we bring God up to date?

"John Hunt is to liberal theology what Richard Dawkins is to evolutionary biology...a readable, thoughtful and challenging work." Christian Marketplace

Quaker Quicks - In Search of Stillness

Joanna Godfrey Wood

How can we find inner stillness in our lives today? What is it for and how can we use it?

"Joanna gives us a very helpful and meaningful exploration of Quaker 'stillness' along with an assortment of exercises to take us along the meditative path. She also talks about the obstacles that can block the process. I found her quote - 'Explore who you really are rather than who you think you are' very helpful and she compares Quaker legendary writings on 'stillness'." Isa Louise Levy | MA, Artist/Arts Psychotherapist

Nature's Sacrament

THE EPIC OF EVOLUTION
AND A THEOLOGY OF SACRAMENTAL ECOLOGY

David C. McDuffie

Nature's Sacrament

David C. McDuffie

Nature's Sacrament focuses on the religious and ecological significance of the evolutionary epic in an effort to seamlessly connect the ecological value attributed as a part of an understanding of the evolutionary connectedness of life on Earth, with the Divine grace understood to be present in Christian sacramental worship.

"David McDuffie has focused on what must be the heart of Christian ecotheology - the nexus between Jesus and the sacramental reality of the Earth. This book makes an important, timely, thoughtful contribution to the growing conversation in this area." Rev. Fletcher Harper, Executive Director, GreenFaith

Christian Alternative Books; 2021-09-24; ; Pb-9781789047172, $14.95/£8.99, 136pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789047189, $7.99/£4.99.

Quaker Quicks - That Clear and Certain Sound

Pamela Haines

"This book is like a refreshing rain—a shower of meditations on life-lessons presented so deftly and gently by the author that their true depth and breadth may at first be overlooked. Behind the clear and certain language in which Pamela Haines' voice comes across, lies a worldview deeply rooted in the Quaker ethos. Yet her stories and reflections, and the questions she ponders, will resonate with all who work to bring the healing of "right relationship" to the human world and to earth's whole commonwealth of life." Keith Helmuth | Author of Tracking Down Ecological guidance: Presence, Beauty, Survival

Christian Alternative Books; 2021-11-26; Quaker/Theology/Psychology of Religion; Pb-9781789047653, $10.95/£6.99, 80pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789047660, $5.99/£3.99.

I Wonder: Mind-Freeing Encounters With God

Nathan Aaseng

"Nathan Aaseng asks the 'God questions' about which many of us wonder but rarely have the honesty to explore. Weaving together story, life experience, science, humor, and hope, Aaseng stitches together a quilt of Christianity that faithfully lifts up the God of grace and pointedly rejects the easy answers of popular religion. With the heart of a pastor, the wit of a humorist, the eloquence of a bard, the clarity of a scientist, and the depth of a theologian, the reader is led onto holy ground to see the God of mercy, justice, and love." Duane Pederson, former Lutheran bishop and Visiting Professor at Yale Divinity School

Christian Alternative Books; 2021-11-26; BODY, MIND & SPIRIT (General)/Christianity (General)/Christian Theology (General); Pb-9781789047776, $18.95/£11.99, 224pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789047783, $9.99/£5.99.

Church Going Gone

Brian Mountford

"Church Going Gone is the work of a man of great goodness, considerable stubbornness, and not a little cunning. In the course of his life as a priest Mountford aroused enormous admiration not only for his liberal stance but also for his personal qualities of kindness and open-mindedness, and for the imaginative (and occasionally provocative) way in which he welcomed speakers from many different traditions to his church. All his qualities are vividly present in this book, as well as a lively gift for scene-setting and character-drawing. I enjoyed it enormously." Philip Pullman CBE, FRSL, author of the Dark Materials trilogy

Red Dress: A Novel

Bridget Finklaire

Katy is a stressed out career mum in her 40's, time-starved and disenchanted. She's forgotten who she is, who she was and what makes her tick.

"Engaging, light-hearted and deeply touching, this book deals with universal themes: alienation, exploration and the quest for reconciliation - with who you were, where you are and what you want to be." Jane Bailey Bain, author of Lifeworks

Bea's Witch

Daniel Ingram-Brown

On the eve of her twelfth birthday, Beatrice Crosse runs away from her adoptive home only to encounter the ghost of England's most famous prophetess. The witch offers her treasure, but can she be trusted?

"Moving and Captivating. With the touch of a master craftsman, Daniel Ingram-Brown deftly interweaves a realistic portrayal of adoption with a story of magical encounter." Dr Tom Dobson, Course Director at Leeds Beckett University
