Did You Kill Anyone?

Scott Beauchamp

Did You Kill Anyone? asks a question that is rarely, if ever, discussed publicly: 'why do soldiers miss war?'. With the intimacy of a memoir and the force of a critical analysis, Scott Beauchamp gives his daring, counterintuitive take, interrogating the frivolous conformity of our increasingly inhuman(e) culture.

Allegories of the End of Capitalism

Milo Sweedler

In Allegories of the End of Capitalism, Milo Sweedler deconstructs the events of films Melancholia; Cosmopolis; Suffragette; Django Unchained; Elysium and Snowpiercer, the socio-political contexts they arise from and enter into, and their impact on contemporary culture and life. He examines how filmmakers from six different countries, across four continents, give narrative and audio-visual form to the frustration and anger that burst into public view in 2011, the ongoing class war between the super-rich and the rest of the world's population, and the insurrection that it yet to come.

Debunking the Myth of America's Poodle

Nu'man Abd al-Wahid

Wherever the United States invades and bombs, Great Britain lays out the carpet and obediently follows. This subservience is jubilantly referred to as a "special relationship" by its supporters; by its detractors it is disparagingly depicted as "America's poodle".

"An important book that everyone concerned with the history of and the fight against British Imperialism needs to read. Highly recommended." Professor John Newsinger, author of The Blood Never Dried: A People's History of the British Empire

Zero Books; 2020-01-31; Imperialism/International Relations (General)/Military Policy; Pb-9781785359200, $19.95/£12.99, 160pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781785359217, $15.99/£10.99,

Manifesto Handbook, The

Julian Hanna

A brief genealogy of the genre, The Manifesto Handbook analyses its complex speaking position, traces the material process of manifesto making from production to dissemination, unpacks its extremist underbelly, and follows the twenty-first century resurgence of the manifesto as a re-politicised and reinvigorated digital form.

"Julian Hanna's book does a beautiful and necessary job of showing both the limits and the possibilities of manifestos; giving us the chance to re-imagine its potential for a new kind of world-building and re-claiming." Morehshin Allahyari, artist and co-author of The 3D Additivist Manifesto

Zero Books; 2020-01-31; Political Advocacy/Politics/Social History; Pb-9781785358982, $19.95/£12.99, 192pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781785358999, $15.99/£10.99,

Politics of Debt, The

Sjoerd van Tuinen & Arjen Kleinherenbrink

The Politics of Debt brings together philosophers, political scientists, and economists and sets them the task of reflecting on the political role played by debt. Focusing on the aftermath of the 2008 economic crisis, particularly in the United States and Europe, the book is split into groups. It contains six essays and five interviews that aim to fully comprehend the political and social consequences of the economic crisis and specifically of debt.

Degrowth in Movement(s)

Matthias Schmelzer & Corinna Burkhardt & Nina Treu

What can the degrowth movement learn from present movements and the other way around? Degrowth in Movement(s) explores a mosaic of alternatives for social-ecological transformation — an alliance strengthened by its diversity.

"This is a powerfully important topic to engage. Physics and chemistry are indicating that we're going to have to inhabit this planet differently - here are some ideas on how we might do that." Bill McKibben, author and activist with 350.org

What Is Post-Modern Conservatism

Matthew McManus

What Is Post-Modern Conservatism develops a way to understand the emergence of right wing populism in the era of postmodern capitalism.

"This thoughtful essay collection speaks to a fundamental question of our times: when abundance and technological advance render struggle and meaning less pressing, what comes to replace these longstanding cornerstones of life?" Erich J Prince, Editor of Merion West

Zero Books; 2020-01-31; Political/Political Economy/Cultural & Social; Pb-9781789042450, $23.95/£14.99, 248pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789042467, $0/£0,

British State, The

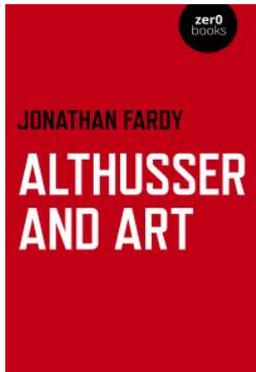

Chris Nineham

What happens if a radical government gets elected in Britain? How will the banks, the civil servants, the media and the military react? Is the idea of a British coup far-fetched? How can the left prepare?

Chris Nineham addresses these questions by looking behind the myths at the reality of two hundred years of British state rule. He brings us a warning from history. Don't be fooled again, read this book.

"An outstanding primer about one of the most urgent issues of the day." John Pilger, author of Hidden Agendas

Althusser and Art

Jonathan R Fardy

Althusser and Art offers a reading of Althusserianism as a meta-mediation on the question concerning the aesthetics of theory. Fardy shows that Althusserian theory is part of a larger genealogy of thought, stretching from Korsch through Laruelle, that has been primarily concerned with the search for a form of theory, an aesthetic of theorizing, capable of transcending the theory-practice dialectic.

'Fardy pries open new ground in the continually deepening intersections of the aesthetic and the political.' Christopher Langlois, author of Samuel Beckett and the Terror of Literature

Zero Books; 2020-03-27; Criticism/Aesthetics/Art & Politics; Pb-9781789043075, $11.95/£7.99, 80pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789043082, $0/£0,

Time's Lie

Leo Cookman

Why do people trust 'fake news'? Time's Lie analyses the history, the science and the philosophy behind the creation of linear stories, or Narrativisation, as this book dubs it.

"Cookman gives a writer's perspective on all manner of narratives, from the bedtime story and the lie to the news narrative and the apparently narrative-less scientific claim. His compelling rumination, both personal and philosophical, considers the role of storytelling in constructing identity, philosophy and pretty much everything else." Alfie Bown, author of Enjoying It: Candy Crush and Capitalism

Zero Books; 2020-04-24; Cultural & Social/Political Economy/Language; Pb-9781789043396, $14.95/£9.99, 120pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789043402, $11.99/£7.99,

Take Hold of Our History

Harvey J. Kaye

The eighteen essays and speeches in Take Hold of Our History render a manifesto – a call to remember, redeem, and embrace the American radical story and tradition in favor of cultivating American historical memory and imagination and making America radical once again.

As Bill Moyers put it in 2008: "Here in the first decade of the twenty-first century the story that becomes America's dominant narrative will shape our collective imagination and our politics for a long time." The time has come for us to advance that narrative.

Zero Books; 2019-10-25; American Government (General)/Radicalism/21st Century; Pb-9781789043556, $14.95/£10.99, 160pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789043563, $11.99/£8.99,

Toward Forever: Radical Reflections on History and Art

Tony McKenna

Toward Forever: Radical Reflections on History and Art is a diverse, colourful and eclectic set of essays of historical and cultural analyses. From the genesis of Islam as a social movement, to an account of Goya's art in the context of feudal absolutism and the Napoleonic wars, to The Da Vinci Code, and much more besides.

McKenna is a classical Marxist not shy of addressing popular culture, past and present, works often ignored by other Marxist critics increasingly confined to Academia and its high-brow concerns.

Welcome to the Rebellion

Michael Harris

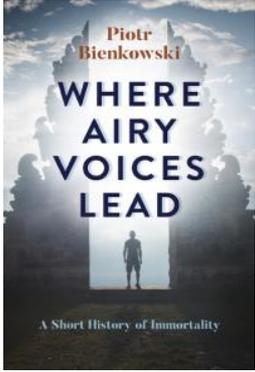

What does it mean that our most popular modern myth is a radical left story about fighting corporate authoritarianism? From its roots in the 1960s new left, Star Wars still speaks to millions of people today. By design, the saga mirrors our own time and politics. A real empire of corporate domination has arisen within weakened and corrupted republics. Now it threatens our existence on a planetary scale.

But, the popularity of Star Wars also suggests that if we tell the right stories, we can Welcome to the Rebellion many more people to fight for a better world...

Deeper Than Suspected

Thomas Daniel Nehrer

Thomas Daniel Nehrer presents in Deeper Than Suspected an intimate awareness of Oneness.

Unattached to common movements and popular notions, Nehrer's deep insights into the workings of the subconscious and its integrated tie to experienced reality move the reader forward. His unique viewpoint reveals hidden meaning within common questions on life, ideas and consciousness. A unique collation of life's questions, all answered from a perspective of consciousness, free from attachment to any singular religion, scientific or philosophical movement.

The Wonder of You, The

Lynn K. Russell

The Wonder of You offers messages from beyond to seekers and explains how it all relates to our everyday lives.

"Lynn does something in this book nobody else has done. She shows you how near-death experiencers, in sharing what happened to them and what that meant to them, are actually describing the truth, the real truth, about each and every one of us... anywhere in the world!" P.M.H. Atwater, LHD, author of Dying to Know You: Proof of God in the Near-Death Experience

Sitting in the Stillness

Martin Wells

Sitting in the Stillness is a collection of stories from the therapy room. Each one invites the reader to go beyond these personal accounts to the universal, beyond the agitations of the mind to an infinite stillness of being. The stories include examples from group therapy, mindfulness groups, family and couples' therapy and demonstrate our fundamental interconnectedness.

"Insightful, practically useful, even enlightening. We are led along a less 'self-centred' path with a delightfully light touch." Nigel Wellings, author of Why Can't I Meditate?

It's About You! (New Edition)

Chris W.E. Johnson

In this new, revised edition of It's About You! Chris W.E. Johnson posits that when we know the totality of our Self – the fabulous resources of our Essence self, along with the foibles, fears and errant beliefs of our ego-self – we are in a much better position to free ourselves from the restraints that impede the full expression of the Self in the physical domain.

"This book is a blueprint for discovering what really matters in life, a template for joy and fulfillment." Larry Dossey, MD, author of Reinventing Medicine and The Power of Premonitions

Sense of Something Lost, A

Sue Wells

Everyone has a story to tell and can feel trapped by it. This inspirational memoir, A Sense of Something Lost is about liberation after years of restlessness and searching. Sue Wells, asks: can a woman who has experienced the trauma of a forced adoption be free to live her life? Do traumas, whatever their nature, shape, define or ruin our lives? Or encourage us to see that our greatest challenges are also keys to the freedom we seek, enabling us to find who we are beyond our personal story?

For anyone trapped by their story, this is a radical way of finding freedom through ancient Eastern mysticism by realising what can never be lost.

This One is Special Suzanne Askham

In January 1996 Suzanne's first child, Timothy, was born. He had a mysterious, undiagnosed condition. Ninety minutes later, in his dad's arms, he stopped breathing. This is the true story of what happened next.

When your child has a condition that can't be cured, where do you look for answers? In the first year they looked to doctors. In the second year they looked to holistic practitioners. In the third year they looked within.

This book is about how Suzanne, and Tim's dad, learnt to trust their own instincts, through dreams and intuition.

Self-Love Pledge Katie Oman

Self-Love Pledge is a book that guides the reader to the most important journey of all, that of loving yourself. It is this which opens the doors to a real sense of happiness and fulfilment, and yet it's one that most people struggle with. Katie Oman explains why learning to love yourself is such an important thing for all of us, providing practical exercises to help the reader do just that. She draws on personal experiences, which are both shocking and deeply moving, to help each person who reads this book find the inspiration that will turn their life around.

Power of Past Life Regression, The Steve Burgess

Hypnotherapist Steve Burgess has conducted many thousands of past life regression sessions and this book details some of the incredible healings his clients have experienced as a result of past life therapy. Each of the client's stories is vividly re-told using the words that they spoke whilst in trance in their regression sessions. They paint exciting pictures and describe in detail the events that took place in the past lives, often giving a fascinating insight into life in former times.

Shine On David Ditchfield & J S Jones

The near-death (NDE) experience is one of the most astonishing phenomena in the history of man. What if, as a result of an NDE, someone who couldn't paint or write music was suddenly able to compose and perform classical symphonies and execute paintings like a highly skilled artist? After his NDE, this is exactly what happened to David Ditchfield. Shine On is his story.

"Shine On is one of the most gripping accounts of a near-death experience that I have read." Dr Raymond A Moody, psychologist and philosopher, author of Life after Life

O-BOOKS; 2020-06-26; Near-Death Experience/Afterlife & Reincarnation/Personal Memoirs; Pb-9781789043655, $21.95/£13.99, 280pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789043662, $10.99/£6.99,

Escaping from Eden Paul Wallis

The familiar stories of the book of Genesis affirm that God made the universe, planet earth, and you and me. However, various anomalies in the text clue us that we are not reading the original version of these stories. So what were the original narratives and what did they say about who we are and where we all came from?

"Paul Wallis is doing a courageous service by looking at the Bible with the perspective of other traditions and religions to give us a new perspective on the creation and engineering of man." Sean Stone, Filmmaker and Media Host

You Die at the End William Ferraiolo

William Ferraiolo's attempt to contemplate a few elements of the human condition from the perspective of an individual, middling effort to manage a human life. Perhaps this will prove worthy of the reader's time and effort. The author hopes to be of service. The author frequently fails. Sometimes, the author blunders into a brief, useful moment of clarity. Read on to find out if this book serves as a useful blunder.

"William Ferraiolo is a wise philosopher...and I would recommend his book to anyone looking to learn more about the purpose of life, and how to conduct themselves with respect and honor." Jake Guy, Host of Mindset Coach Podcast

New Dictionary of Fairies, A

Morgan Daimler

Fairies are a challenging subject, intertwining culture, folklore, and anecdotal accounts across centuries and millennia. Focusing primarily on the Celtic speaking cultures, with some material from adjacent cultures including Anglo-Saxon and Norse, A New Dictionary of Fairies has in-depth entries on a variety of fairies as well as subjects related to them, such as why we picture elves with pointed ears or where the idea of fairies being invisible comes from. It also tackles more complicated topics like the nature and physicality of the fairy people. Anyone with an interest in the Good Neighbours will find this book a solid resource to draw from.

Pagan Portals - Thor

Morgan Daimler

Thor is an immensely popular God but also one of contradictions, whose complexity is sometimes underrated. Often depicted as oafish, he was clever enough to outwit the dwarf Alvis (All-wise). A god of storms and thunder, he brought fertility and blessed brides at weddings and although a defender of civilization and order, he usually travelled with a trickster deity.

Pagan Portals - Thor is an introductory book that examines both history and mythology, untangling older beliefs from modern pop-culture.

Moon Books; 2020-03-27; Folklore & Mythology/Celtic Spirituality/Paganism & Neo-Paganism; Pb-9781789041156, $10.95/£6.99, 104pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789041163, $5.99/£3.99,

Pagan Portals - Reclaiming Witchcraft

Irisanya Moon

Reclaiming Witchcraft is designed to help the reader better understand the basic structure of the Reclaiming tradition, as well as discover how it has changed since its initial formation in San Francisco and subsequent journey out to the reaches of Canada, Australia, and Europe.

Reclaiming Witchcraft seeks to welcome those who might be interested in learning more, while also directing them to resources and paths that can help facilitate their journey.

Pagan Portals - Seeking the Primal Goddess

Melusine Draco

Using archaeology, archaeo-mythology and mitochondrial DNA we can chart the mass migrations of people throughout the ancient world and follow the footsteps of the beliefs of Old Europe.

But if the concept of the Old Goddess is at odds with current popular thinking, how will we feel if we discover that the Great Mother of contemporary Paganism bears no similarity to the primal Great Goddess of the Old European world?

Pagan Portals - Loki

Dagulf Loftson

A bold and necessary look at the Trickster God of the Norse.

"Pagan Portals - Loki is a bold and necessary look at the Trickster God of the Norse. The author deftly weaves together academic material and personal experience to give the reader a guide not only to better understand this often maligned deity but also to connect directly to him. An unflinching appraisal that offers a great deal of insight into Loki." Morgan Daimler author of Pagan - Portals Odin and Pagan Portals - Thor

Pagan Portals - Ishtar and Ereshkigal

Scott Irvine

Ishtar and Ereshkigal are the daughters of the Moon God Sin and sisters of the Sun God Shamash, and members of a family of deities called the Anunnaki, who arrived from the heavens to the earth many thousands of years ago. Ishtar, as Inanna, was the original goddess of love and the forerunner to all of the fertility goddesses that followed. Ereshkigal was the original ruler of the underworld and the goddess of death.

As the queens of heaven and the underworld, Ishtar and Ereshkigal represent the opposing forces that allow life, death and rebirth to occur in the world.

Beyond the Cave

Peter Christian Vardy

Beyond the Cave challenges the contemporary materialist and post-truth world view, and provides a considered alternative. Peter Vardy explains why claims to absolute Truth have become severely eroded but he also charts a way forward.

"In a post-truth world, this is a splendidly energetic and thoughtful book about discovery and truth. The great questions of our destiny and of what it means to be human are often ignored on the one hand by the relativists who believe that 'my truth' is what matters, and on the other hand by fundamentalists who wish to impose their 'truth' on the world." Christopher Lewis, Christ's College, Oxford

Bullet in the Pawpaw, The

Kim Hope

Kim is enjoying the delights of London in the 'Swinging Sixties' when a chance encounter takes her on a journey to South Africa. Travelling with a touring Shakespeare company, Kim is irrevocably drawn to the 'beloved country', but her abhorrence of the oppressive system of apartheid forces her to return home.

This experience changes the direction of her life, and now, having achieved a longed-for education, she is on a mission: to stop the spread of HIV. She creates the Themba HIV&AIDS Organisation in Johannesburg and recruits and trains young people from the townships to deliver a unique programme of interactive theatre workshops.

Unintended Consequences

Clive Wills

How is it that, in doing our very best to achieve one thing, we can end up achieving just the opposite? In Unintended Consequences, Clive Wills discusses national disasters, Prohibition and the War on Drugs, frustrated efforts to improve health and safety, and touches on issues of everyday life such as how to improve relationships and bring up children. As HL Mencken reflected, "For every complex problem, there is a solution that is simple, neat, and wrong". This book examines the many ways in which those apparently simple solutions can turn around and bite us, and more importantly, just what we can do about it.

Spheres of Perception

Theodore Holtzhausen

The 24-hour wired world has led to increased volatility. Health, the environment, the welfare of society are pushed to the far edge of national interests. What if written into the code of our DNA and RNA is a guide for telling us how to evolve morally and as a result improve our world and progress our epistemology? From such an understanding emerge new Spheres of Perception.

What Was in Buddha's Left Hand?

Ira Rechtshaffer

What Was in Buddha's Left Hand? inspires us to experience the world with refreshing openness and appreciation, where we might discover enlightenment where we least expect to find it.

"Using a Tibetan Buddhist tantric lens, Rechtshaffer's What Was in the Buddha's Left Hand? invites us to intimately explore our direct sensory experience, see through our neurotic distortions, and discover our natural sanity, compassion, and openness. An eloquent, insightful, and practical guide for Buddhists and non-Buddhists alike." John J. Mystical Activism

John C. Robinson

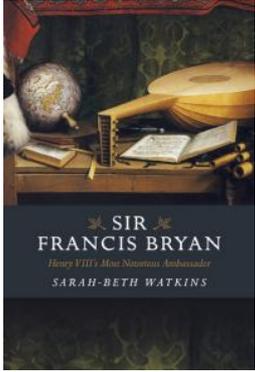

We each hold the power to change the world right where we are.

"John C. Robinson's Mystical Activism: Transforming a World in Crisis is a book for a world and a people living in an apocalyptic age; an age of destruction and revelation, of despair and opportunity. It recognizes that such times require more than mere political activism; they require a spiritual transformation as well. Robinson offers the reader practical steps for this transformation, presenting tools for us to come home... It is truly a book for our time." Sir Francis Bryan

Sarah-Beth Watkins

Sir Francis Bryan was Henry VIII's most notorious ambassador and one of his closest companions. Bryan was a man of many talents; jousting, poet, rake and hell-raiser, gambler, soldier, sailor, diplomat. He served his king all of his life and unlike many of the other men who served Henry VIII, he kept his head and outlived his sovereign.

Queen's Sisters, The

Sarah J. Hodder

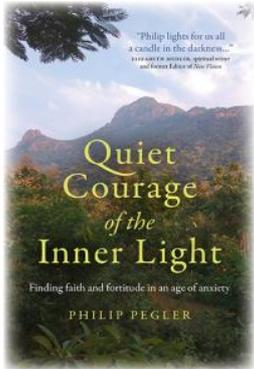

Whether Queen or commoner, the lives of women throughout history is a fascinating study. Elizabeth Woodville, 'The White Queen', managed to make the transition from commoner to Queen and became the epitome of medieval heroines – the commoner who married a King.

When she became the wife of Edward IV her actions changed the life of her entire family. Vilified both by their contemporaries and by many historians since, the Woodville family were centre stage during the reigns of Edward IV and Richard III. Elizabeth Woodville became the ancestress of future Kings and Queens. This book takes a fresh look at the lives of Elizabeth's sisters.

Quiet Courage of the Inner Light

Philip Pegler

Quiet Courage of the Inner Light faithfully records some keynotes of author Philip Pegler's lifelong spiritual quest. This book reflects upon the joys, hardship and profound lessons to be learnt on the challenging path to the ground of being and shows that it is within the shadows of doubt or desolation that you may stumble upon a hidden doorway to the deepest reality.

"The sign of a good book is the need to keep recording sentences and paragraphs from it.. With this book I can guarantee that you will need to keep your ipad or your pen close by." Elizabeth Medler, Book and Magazine Editor

Since We Saw You Last

Ben Clowes

Methodist Minister, Rev Ben Clowes has produced a series of Bible studies which relates scripture to living in the 21st Century. Using the music of Gary Barlow's highly emotional 2013 solo album, Since I Saw You Last as a backdrop, the studies look at how as a Church we connect with people most often at times of rites of passage.

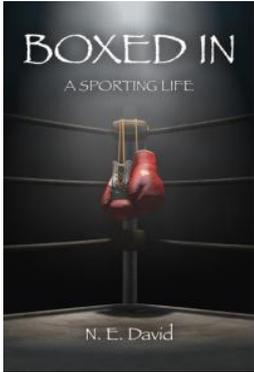

Since We Saw You Last offers a clear creative way to run a study or fellowship group to deepen discipleship.

'...heartily recommend this series of studies, making vivid and thought-provoking connections between Gospel and culture.' Canon Professor Loveday Alexander

This Is All He Asks of You

Anne Egseth

Spanning Norway, Washington DC and Greece, This Is All He Asks of You is a visionary story about letters never sent, life once flowing and now frozen, swim-flying in golden light and the beauty of human connection. Above all, it is a story about how sad it would be if everything became like everything else.

"A twelve-year-old girl writes letters about her life to her long-gone, unknown father. This is a simple, yet deeply moving story about the power of love and light in our lives. Spiritual at heart and authentic in form....." Anne Synnøve Simensen, author of The Woman behind the Nobel Peace Prize: Bertha von Suttner and Alfred Nobel
