Radical Chains

Chris Nineham

At a time of almost unimaginable inequality, the mainstream still tries to ignore class. Radical Chains: Why Class Matters argues that denial of class is no coincidence but in fact central to the system's survival. Exploring largely ignored histories of struggle and challenging the many myths about class today, Radical Chains puts forward the case that it is time to place class once again at the centre of emancipatory politics.

Fear Before the Fall

Alexander Herbert

In the late 1970s and throughout the 1980s, production of horror movies from independent filmmakers and Hollywood skyrocketed. It was a time of intense Cold War conflict and a resurgence of conservative ideals. It's not difficult to imagine that the ascent of horror occurred in conjunction with an increasingly scary and alienated world, and horror reflected those freights in the form of nuclear holocausts, toxic waste pollution, alien clown invaders and undead houseguests. Everyone was at risk - teenagers especially - because their present and future remained most uncertain.

Jesus: A Life in Class Conflict

James Crossley & Robert J. Myles

Delivering a wealth of knowledge on the social, economic, and cultural conflicts of the time, Jesus: A Life in Class Conflict uncovers the emergence of a fervent and deadly serious religious organizer whose social and religious movement offered not only a radical end-time edict of divine reversal and judgment but also a promising new world order ruled in the interests of the peasantry.

'The greatest story ever told as told from below is more compelling than ever. I was utterly engrossed.' Ciara Cremin, author of Totalled: Salvaging the Future from the Wreckage of Capitalism

Capitalist Realism (New Edition)

Mark Fisher

Using examples from politics, film, fiction, work and education, Mark Fisher argues that capitalist realism colours all areas of contemporary experience, is anything but realistic and asks how capitalism and its inconsistencies can be challenged. It is a sharp analysis of the post-ideological malaise that suggests that the economics and politics of free market neo-liberalism are givens rather than constructions.

'A provocative and necessary read for anyone wanting to talk seriously about the politics of education today.' Times Higher Educational Supplement

Now and Forever: Towards a theory and history of the loop

Tilman Baumgärtel

Elvis Presley and Karlheinz Stockhausen. The Beatles and Andy Warhol. Terry Riley and Ken Kesey. What all these artists have in common is that loops have played a significant role in their work. The short sequences of sounds or images repeated using recording media have proved to be an astonishingly flexible, versatile and momentous aesthetic method in post-World War II art and music.

Today, loops must be counted among the most important creative tools of postmodern art and music. Yet until now they have been largely overlooked as an aesthetic phenomenon. Now, for the first time, this book tells a secret story of the 20th century.

No Justice, No Police?

Matt Clement

This is a new movement, international in scope, with a disproportionately large section of young people - Black and white - using their own language and tactics to fundamentally challenge the whole range of racist institutions governing today's globalised world. Matt Clement's No Justice, No Police? The Politics of Protest and Social Change chronicles this movement as it continues to deepen and broaden.

'The book will be invaluable for all students interested in justice, equality and rights in the age of Black Lives Matter.' David Baker, author of We are Not the Enemy, University of Liverpool, UK

Zer0 Books; 2023-05-26; Law Enforcement/Corruption & Misconduct/Civil Rights; Pb-9781789049459, $29.95/£22.99, 376pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789049466, $23.99/£18.99.

Navigating from the White Anthropocene to the Black Chthulucene

William Brown

Through its daring and provocative analysis of Buster Keaton's iconic 1924 film, The Navigator, Navigating from the White Anthropocene to the Black Chthulucene invites us to consider cinema itself, at least in its classical narrative form, as a tool for constructing and maintaining white supremacy while building the conceptual tools for a world beyond whiteness. This book deconstructs the film's underlying anti-Blackness and anti-Indigeneity while exposing the unthinking whiteness of theorists and philosophers, including Gilles Deleuze, who have given Keaton's work pride of place in the history of cinema.

Youth Group

Lance Aksamit

Youth Group: Coming of age in the church of Christian nationalism follows the life of a missionary kid as he traverses the bizarre world of anti-masturbation purity groups, CD immolation parties, the culture wars, and an occasional exorcism. Author Lance Aksamit explores how and why the Evangelical church didn't simply jump into bed with but became Christian Nationalists.

'A book that effortlessly blends hilarious personal experiences with serious examination of both the author's motives and the movement in which he was born.' Matthew Sheffield, former Mormon and founder of Flux.community

Problem with Stupid, The

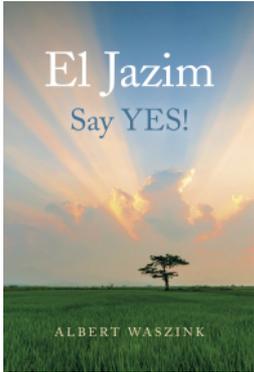

Tom Grimwood

In the past two decades, the rise of a particular commonplace in public debate has emerged on both the Left and the Right: the threat of 'the stupid.' Far from a throwaway ad hominem, stupidity has become a key trope for both explaining and criticising the election results, culture wars and the advances of post-truth. But how do we negotiate 'the stupid' in a meaningful way?

'Through stimulating analyses of public discourse and engagement with thinkers such as Foucault and Groys, Grimwood offers a surprising but convincing diagnosis...' Nabutaka Otake, Osaka University

El Jazim

Albert Waszink

El Jazim: Say YES! begins by explaining the end time in which we live today and shares direct knowledge that restores the common foundations of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, which involve the first and last names of God, the nature of God, the meaning of the word Amen, Jesus Christ, the coming of the Messiah, the archangels, the purpose of life, and the first commandment: 'Love.'

This book then explains the inner Path to Christ consciousness: the path from an ego-centred awareness to a heartcentred awareness, which comprises seven development stages that can be extracted from the Bible.

Mescalito Riding His White Horse

Mike Fiorito

Mescalito Riding His White Horse was inspired by several interviews conducted with Peter Rowan, legendary bluegrass musician, over a period of a few months during 2021. Peter never really followed the path of rock superstar - he was more interested in the alchemical process of music. In discovering this magic, I have felt myself projected across time, place, and identity and tried to put that experience into words.

'Wow! It's beautiful. I'm touched that you "got" it! I also really like how you amplify the actual locations of events. I've always considered the energy of the local landscape as a deep aspect of experiences there.' Peter Rowan

Who can fail to be amazed by the transformation of a tiny egg into a caterpillar, then into a chrysalis, finally to emerge as a beautiful butterfly? This seemingly magical process is the life cycle of every butterfly and moth and is one of the many wonders of nature that fascinated Steve Andrews when he was a child - and it still does to this day. The Magic of Butterflies and Moths musingly explores the wonders of these marvelous winged insects and what makes them so magical.

'Lovely stories and lots of amazing facts too. We especially like the story about your cat and the Monarch.'

Magic of Cats, The

Andrew Anderson

Over the centuries, the relationship between cats and humans has been one of profound change, of both darkness and light. In Ancient Egypt, we worshipped them as the physical embodiment of a goddess. In Medieval Europe, we tortured and punished them for being the familiars of witches. In the twenty-first century, we are obsessed with filming and posting their antics on social media. There is nothing so wonderful as the magic of cats.

'This gem of a book delves into behavioural patterns of our feline friends that will transform your relationship with them and leave you wondering what more mischief they may be conspiring.' Kristoffer Hughes, author

Magic of Serpents, The Scott Irvine

A remnant from the age of the dinosaur, the serpent was originally a symbol of arcane knowledge from the old gods. Transformed into the devil for tempting Eve to eat from the forbidden tree, the serpent has remained the villain ever since. Scott Irvine's The Magic of Serpents is a profound search for the symbolism and worldwide mythology - at the religious, philosophical and spiritual levels - for which the serpent stands.

Pagan Portals - 21st Century Fairy Morgan Daimler

When people think of fairies they often picture beings who dwell in the wilderness, solidly anchored in the past. Yet the truth is that fairies are as present and active in the world today as ever, found as easily in cities as they are in wild places. 21st Century Fairy explores fairy beliefs and encounters in the modern world, framed by folklore, modern fiction and personal experience.

'An interesting, well documented survey of beliefs about the fairies, from long ago up to today. Includes references to folklore and modern storytelling, as well as personal experience.' Catherine Kane, author of Adventures in Palmistry and The Practical Empath

Staff of Laurel, Staff of Ash Dianna Rhyan

At the crossroads of nature and the human imagination, Earth is sentient, fertile, and eloquent. When ancient goddesses, outcasts, heroes, and poets speak, they speak on her behalf to reveal living myths that first enchanted sacred landscapes. Their primal stories emerge from wilderness and rise from buried libraries to jolt us awake. We meet a lone goddess battling fifty giants, a beguiling wife who is secretly a serpent, a radiant lyre about to sing her own poetry, and an ogre whose heart is his forest. When oaks and rivers call for justice, when furies and monsters counter king and plow, let us turn our ear to hear.

Church of Birds Ben H. Gagnon

Church of Birds is an eco-history of human evolution that's supported by recent scientific discoveries, ancient myth, and sacred texts. Creation of Self, The

Joshua R. Farris

The Creation of Self is the first book-length defense of a creationist view of persons as souls. This book therefore serves as both a novel argument for God's creation of selves and as a critique of contemporary materialist and emergent-self alternatives, critically examining naturalistic views that argue for a regular, law-like process behind the emergence of personhood

Queen's Frog Prince, The

David Lee

David Lee pores over some of the surviving love letters exchanged between Elizabeth and Anjou, whom Elizabeth affectionately nicknamed "my frog." Lee suggests that although the courtship suited Elizabeth I politically, it also blossomed into something much more complex, an affectionate bond, and that to understand Elizabeth I as a woman, she must first be seen for who she was beneath all the vainglory and iconography.

'Beautifully written and thought provoking, The Queen's Frog Prince vividly brings to life the woman behind the mask of monarchy.' Natalie Grueninger, author and researcher, and founder of On the Tudor Trail website

WanderLOST

Jacob Sims

This exuberant coming-of-age story charts one millennial's decades-long globetrotting adventure in pursuit of personal meaning, significance, and belonging. Along the way, he reckons with the ingrained modern tendency to idolize self-seeking pursuits and discard the more humble, courageous journey of learning to love.

'WanderLOST is a beautiful story, a tremendous-global-adventure kind of story, of one man's salvation being worked out with fear and trembling. Sims asks all the right questions. He gently invites you to ask them with him. He travels the world and brings you along.' Shane Claiborne, Red Letter Christians, Activist, Author

Quakers and Politics brings a special approach to political action that draws on 360 years of activism.

Quakers in Politics draws together examples of Quakers who have impacted public policy around the world, both as individuals and members of Quaker organizations, recognizing without exaggerating the impact of the Quaker movement.*' Lon Fendall, former faculty and administrator at George Fox University and Wilmington College and member of the staff of U. Jesus Puzzle, The

Brenda Watson

The Jesus Puzzle: Challenging intellectual uncertainty about Jesus shares the question of knowledge of the historical Jesus, in order to refute sceptics who consider that we can know very little about Him - and to encourage Christians to have more confidence in relating to what is said about Jesus in the gospels.

'Are accounts of Jesus' life mere 'stories' or based on historical fact? Is that relevant for faith? This incisive and important book argues - against the lazy prejudices of the present age - that what really happened nearly two thousand years ago still does matter. It deserves to be widely read.' Professor Roger Trigg, University of Oxford

Christian Alternative Books; 2023-02-24; History/Christian Theology (General)/Christianity (General); Pb-9781803410128, $15.95/£11.99, 152pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781803410135, $8.99/£6.99.

Living Fountain, The: Remembrances of Quaker Christianity

Benjamin Wood

Based neither on doctrinal agreement nor inflexible religious borders, the Quaker narrative recovered in The Living Fountain: Remembrances of Quaker Christianity is drawn together by sacred experiments in mutual love and enduring hope. Through a series of extended reflections on God, Jesus, and the language of salvation, Wood seeks to uncover a dynamic faith ncommitted to universal healing, reconciliation, and the crossing of religious and cultural boundaries. At the centre of this retrieval is the insistence that the God revealed in Quaker worship cherishes our differences and delights in our diversity.

Others - A Very Short Book About Beliefs

Martyn The Very Revd. Professor Percy

Do we really understand others and their beliefs? Quakerism has a rich tradition of engaging science and has produced many notable amateur and eminent professional scientists in fields ranging from psychology to physics. Quakers and Science discusses some of the historical reasons why Quakers embraced science, introducing ten 20th-century Quaker scientists to explore the intriguing resonances between science and Quakerism.

'This book makes a strikingly original contribution to the science-and-religion debate and stands out as an important milestone in studies of science and religious faith.' Mark Harris, Professor of Natural Science and Theology, University of Edinburgh

Don MacGregor

The Christ and Jesus:

The Difference

The Wisdom Series Book 3

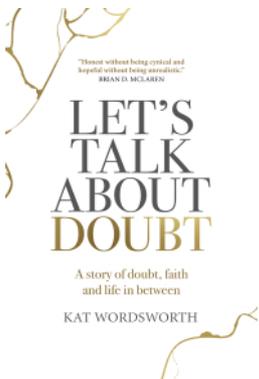

Christ and Jesus, The: The Difference

Don MacGregor

Is Jesus the Christ? If so, what does that mean? How can a human person be a Cosmic Principle? Don MacGregor hopes to make Christianity more relevant for the twenty-first century in his reflection into the difference between the Universal or Cosmic Christ principle and the human figure of Jesus of Nazareth.

'Open-hearted and open-minded, Don MacGregor's latest book is an insightful and intelligent exploration of the true nature of Jesus and his relationship with God. The book's approach is multi-faith in the very best way.' William Bloom, educator and author, director of the Spiritual Companions Trust

Christian Alternative Books; 2023-04-28; Christology/Gnosticism/Mysticism; Pb-9781803411361, $15.95/£11.99, 128pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781803411378, $7.99/£5.99.

Let's Talk About Doubt

Kat Wordsworth

Brutally honest but ultimately hopeful, Let's Talk About Doubt is essential for all those who experience doubt and all those who want to support them.

'I am so grateful that Kat Wordsworth is inviting people to talk about doubt by going public with her story. While the writings of theologians and pastors on doubt can be helpful, there is something especially helpful about a "lay person" who is honest without being cynical and hopeful without being unrealistic. Kat Wordsworth's book could be your guide in discovering for yourself how to be a doubtful Christian.' Brian D. McLaren, author of Do I Stay Christian? and Faith After Doubt.

God Interrogated

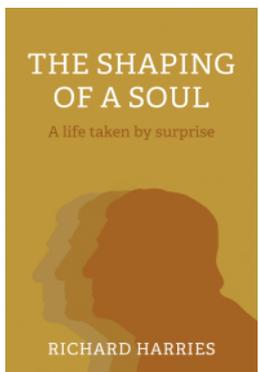

Lynne Renoir

Drawing on the insights that the universe is multidimensional and that everything is ultimately one, Renoir proposes that we, too, are multidimensional beings. She points out that what we believe about anything is generally deemed to be either true or false.

'God Interrogated is a remarkably broad-ranging and erudite examination of the idea and experience of God, through the lenses of monotheistic religion, Western philosophy and science. It is an important new resource for those who are looking to make sense of God in a historically informed and non-dogmatic way.'

Dr. Oliver Robinson, Assoc. Professor of Psychology, University of Greenwich

Shaping of a Soul, The

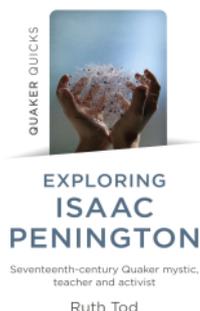

Richard Harries

Richard Harries was serving as a soldier in Germany when he suddenly had an overwhelming sense that God was calling him to be ordained. He had virtually no religious background, but like Martin Luther, he could do no other. The Shaping of a Soul is the story of a man who has engaged in some of the major issues of our time and who, for fifty years, has been a much loved voice on 'Thought for the Day' in the Today programme.

'Richard Harries' autobiography is a deeply moving account of an extraordinary life of our times. It challenges the faithless and humbles the indolent.'

Exploring Isaac Penington: Seventeenth-Century Quaker mystic, teacher and activist

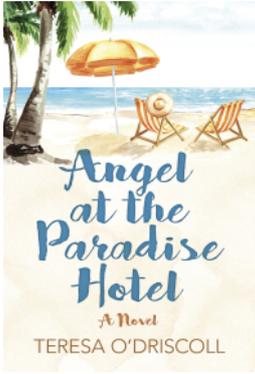

Ruth Tod

In Exploring Isaac Penington: Seventeenth-Century Quaker Mystic, Teacher and Activist, author Ruth Tod not only draws upon Penington's letters and pamphlets to build a bridge between his time and ours, she also uses examples and interpretations of his writings to explore the beliefs and habits that shape our lives. Tod's fresh look at Penington's own insights reminds us just how much we can learn from those early Quaker leaders.

'A great new addition to the Quaker Quick series.' Joanna Godfrey Wood, author of In STEP with Quaker Testimony and In Search of Stillness

Womanpriest, The

Stafford Betty

Macrina McGrath, a young 23-year-old Catholic ex-Marine and unwed mother, begins to see cracks in the Church she grew up loving. Bad priests preying on children, harsh treatment of the divorced and LGBTQ, a deep-seated and toxic sexism, and archaic dogmas force her to choose between leaving the Church or trying to make it better.

'Dr. Stafford Betty weaves mystery and intrigue into this powerful story set in the second half of the century. I could hardly put the book down. It would make a great series on Netflix.' Tina Antonelli, Life Counseling and Coach, Mindfulness and Meditation Teacher

Three Legs in the Evening

Bette Ann Moskowitz

Three Legs in the Evening speaks about people running out of steam, running out of time, and finding solace and wisdom even in the finality of all that.

'A moving, funny, and layered look into the life and mind of a charismatic woman grappling with mental deterioration and the loss of her life-partner. With ruthless honesty and keen observation Moskowitz sympathizes with her characters without ever veering into sentimentality. Readers will root for sharp-witted Sally from start to end and through all the unexpected avenues in between.' Anne McGrath, author, Best American Essays, Notable

No, You're Crazy

Jeff Beamish

No, You're Crazy is a multilayered novel that examines the many ways a family can wound and heal us. A page-turning thriller and a sensitive look at faith and neurodiversity, it ultimately dares to ask, Who gets to decide what's real?

'Drunkenly dark and magically twisted -- as if the spirit of Charles Bukowski woke up in an Elmore Leonard novel and went looking for trouble.' Peter Darbyshire, the award-winning author of Has the World Ended Yet? and The Warhol Gang

Roundfire Books; 2023-05-26; Psychological/Literary/Coming of Age; Pb-9781803412160, $21.95/£16.99, 384pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781803412177, $9.99/£6.99.

Mystic Pursuit

Erik Daniel Boudreau

For millennia, humans co-existed peacefully with three distinct orders of sentient beings, the mystics, each helping to maintain universal balance by governing either life, matter or spiritual energy...

Endorsement from previous novel, Tidal Force: 'This is one of those books you do not want to begin the night before a big meeting because you will still be completely lost in the adventure when the sun comes up... [Boudreau] delivers murderous plots and romantic twists in a narrative so fast-moving and intense that you'll feel you're living--not reading--the adventure.' Terry Irving, 4-time Emmy award-winning writer and producer

Cosmic Egg Books; 2023-06-30; Epic/Fantasy (General)/FICTION (General); Pb-9781803410340, $18.95/£14.99, 288pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781803410357, $9.99/£6.99.
