A secret diary, written by the eldest daughter of Thomas More and close friend of Henry VIII, intertwines three love stories with a tale of religious identity and mystery spanning 500 years.

"Rosenthal is as adept at evoking fifteenth century England and Nazi-infested Europe as she is at chronicling her own time. This brilliant book, a bona fide page turner, is about how to be a woman, a daughter and a Jew, no less than it explores how to be a principled human being. An extraordinary achievement." Joan Mellen, author of A Farewell to Justice: Jim Garrison, JFK's Assassination, and The Case That Should Have Changed History

Philistines and Israelites, their gods and loves and struggles, spring to dramatic life in David and the Philistine Woman."* David Wolpe, America's Most Influential Rabbi, Newsweek Magazine

A moving and vulnerable depiction of a relationship in decline. At times humorous, at times heartbreaking, it explores what it means to live, to love and to lose.

"Gripping storytelling from the very start, this book draws you in and keeps you engaged, often on the edge of your seat, right till the bittersweet end. Beat the Rain is a wonderfully written, fantastically pacey debut novel from an author with a truly compelling insight into the human condition and all its frustrating and often cruel twists and turns." Siobhan Kennedy, Channel 4 News

Reading it opened the poem to me as never before. What a gift!"* Candace Robb, author of the Owen Archer Mystery Series and, as Emma Campion, A Triple Knot

Where Madness Lies

Sylvia True

A story about the high price of repression, and how one woman, who lost nearly everything, must be willing to reveal the failures of the past in order to save future generations.

"Sylvia True's novel is a voyage into the madness of madness, tracing the Nazis' seduction of Germany into the moral catastrophe of racial hygiene. The author shows us not only how the eugenics of race hygiene threaten a family held hostage by its cruelty, but how echoes of this struggle resonate years later in the safety of postwar America. The narrative is written in the voices of two women you can't stop caring about....." Alex Rosenberg, author of The Girl from Krakow

Top Hat Books; 2021-01-29; Historical/Psychological/Jewish; Pb-9781789044607, $18.95/£12.99, 344pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789044614, $7.99/£4.99.

"Goodman writes clearly and concisely and doesn't mince on words. He is able to clearly articulate the picture is trying to portray and make it come to life. The terror he instilled when writing about WWII was real. It takes a talented author to be able to do this." Jennifer O'Neill, Great Expectations Book Blog

Roundfire Books; 2016-12-09; Historical/Espionage/Political; Pb-9781785354861, $24.95/£15.99, 432pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781785354878, $7.99/£4.99.

Star Pilgrim Simon Small

In encountering the alien, a priest discovers who he truly is. An inspirational story of the deepest mysteries of existence.

"I thought Star Pilgrim was going to take me on a delightful journey. It ended up taking me on one hell of a ride. Star Pilgrim is gripping and very, very clever. It interweaves philosophy, mysticism and some home truths in an amazing story. The Da Vinci Code was a great tale and thought provoking, but Star Pilgrim goes one stage further. It is not just another good read, it deserves its place on the bestseller list. Sheer genius." Paul Salmon, Eternal Spirit magazine

Roundfire Books; 2011-03-25; Spirituality/Occultism/Occult & Supernatural; Pb-9781846944673, $22.95/£12.99, 371pp, 5.5x8.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781846947865, $7.99/£4.99.

Black Tom: Terror on the Hudson Ron Semple

A tale of sabotage, subterfuge and political shenanigans set in that colorful, raucous place that was Jersey City in 1916 when America is on the cusp of war and the fate of a president and the nation might hinge on the decision a young policeman is forced to make.

"Mr. Semple has managed to combine fact and fiction along with a family saga of a time in our history when it really was all different, so the book is history and epic and exciting and sometimes laugh-aloud funny, as it tells the down-home stories of the overlapping ethnic groups who peopled those cities that long century ago..." Warren Murphy, screenwriter and bestselling author

THE BURDEN

A FAMILY SAGA

N. E. David

Burden, The

N.E. David

Frank is a reformed alcoholic. He lives at home with his mother, Elisabeth – at least, he did until she went into a nursing home suffering from dementia.

"William Faulkner famously said 'The past isn't dead. It's not even past.' Its unsentimental treatment of childhood as a time of confusion and uncertainty is especially acute. Many readers will see elements of themselves in this emotionally engaging novel." Miles Salter, Director of York Literature Festival
