After The Apocalypse

Monika Kostera

Our times of crumbling structures and decaying social bonds are often depicted as apocalyptic. . Yes, the apocalypse is when social structures and institutions fall apart and we are terrified and suffocated by the debris raining down upon us. But "apocalypse" also means "revelation". The very collapse reveals what dissipating institutions were constructed upon: where there ought to have been foundational common values, most often there is violence and raw power. Yet the values are there, too, and they can be found. This book is a guide to these values, showing how they can be of help to organizers and organizational dreamers.

Against the Web

Michael Brooks

Michael Brooks takes on the new "Intellectual Dark Web." As the host of The Michael Brooks Show and co-host of the Majority Report, he lets his understanding of the new media environment direct his analysis of the newly risen conservative rebels who have taken YouTube by storm.

"A brilliant critique of the Right with very sharp insight on some of the shortcomings of the Left, this book is a must-read for anyone looking to understand how dishonest actors spread their propaganda." Ana Kasparian, Host and Executive Producer of The Young Turks

Aliens, Robots & Virtual Reality Idols in the Science Fiction of H. P. Lovecraft, Isaac Asimov and William Gibson

John L. Steadman

H. P. Lovecraft's aliens are extra-terrestrial, terrestrial & trans-dimensional entities. In contrast, Isaac Asimov's and William Gibson's aliens are human-created positronic robots and virtual reality constructs, or 'idols'. John L. Steadman demonstrates that there is ultimately little difference between alien indifferentism and alien inclusionism in the fictional works of these three great writers.

"... guarantees that you will never look at the writing of Lovecraft, Asimov or Gibson in the same way again." Dr David Simmons, Senior Lecturer in English and Screen Studies, University of Northampton

Circle of the Snake, The

Grafton Tanner

"Whether it is dissecting the utopian fantasies of Big Tech gurus, revealing the political economy of the nostalgia industry, or uncovering exploitation in the global division of digital labour, The Circle of the Snake is just the guide we need to navigate, resist, and transform the online world. In precise, accessible prose, Grafton Tanner offers a much-needed vision of democratic alternatives to surveillance capitalism." Vincent Mosco, author of The Smart City in a Digital World

Conscience of a Progressive, The Steven Klees

Prof. Klees draws on 45 years of work around the world as an economist and international educator to paint a detailed picture of conservative, liberal, and progressive views on a wide range of current social issues. He takes an in-depth look at his specializations: education, economics, poverty and inequality, international development, and capitalism. He examines major social problems like health care, the climate crisis, and war. Throughout the book, Prof. Klees tries to give a fair and careful depiction of how conservatives and liberals see these issues, whilst focusing on critiques by progressives, and on the alternatives they offer.

Emerald City Joseph Grosso

Joseph Grosso traces the history of New York's transformation back into a gilded city, and asks what can be done about it. He examines New York's deindustrialization and the elite planning and design that followed; New York's financial crisis of the mid-1970s and the policy decisions made in its wake; New York's housing crisis; and the history of public housing across the United States.

Fresh, lively, and accessible, Grosso brings the issues of gentrification, deindustrialization, homelessness, and militarized policing, so easily ignored, to the fore.

End of the Megamachine, The Fabian Scheidler

Provides a uniquely comprehensive picture of the roots of the destructive forces that are threatening the future of humankind. Spanning 5000 years of history, the book shows how the three tyrannies of militarized states, capital accumulation and ideological power have been steering both ecosystems and societies to the brink of collapse. With the growing instability of the Megamachine in the 21st century, new dangers open up as well as new possibilities for systemic change, to which everyone can contribute.

"The topic could not be more important. A very valuable and surely timely contribution." Noam Chomsky

Going Nowhere, Slow Mikkel Krause Frantzen

Using examples from art and literature, Frantzen explores the social, political and economic implications of both real and imagined depression.

Margaret Thatcher once declared that there is no alternative to the social order that we now reside within. Have we accepted her slogan as a fact, and is that why so many are on Prozac and other anti-depressants?

"In this sharp and poetic book, Mikkel Krause Frantzen brilliantly illustrates the horror of depression. But he doesn't leave us there, in despair, but opens up new hopeful ways of thinking about the spirit of our time." Carl Cederström, author

How to Dismantle the English State Education System in 10 Easy Steps

Terry Edwards & Carl Parsons

"A sharp and incisive account of how state education has been dismantled into a system of competing Multi-Academy Trusts. We were told 'choice' would deliver higher standards. It didn't. It made the system more chaotic, wasteful and segregated. This book explains how it was done." Alasdair Smith, National Secretary, Anti Academies Alliance

London Dream, The

Chris McMillan

The London Dream is about the mythology of London as a place of opportunity, excitement and the possibility of prosperity. But, who really profits from the London Dream?

From actors to cleaners, academics to café workers, The London Dream explores the stories of Londoners chasing the dreams offered by the city and the economy within which their precarious hopes become profits.

"...an exciting and timely project, both scholarly and accessible, which asks uncomfortable, necessary questions about the ruthlessness of late-capitalism and our complicity within it." Laurence Scott, author The Four Dimensional Human and Picnic Comma Lightning

Zero Books; 2020-08-28; Urban/Social/Cultural & Social; Pb-9781789044201, $29.95/£19.99, 360pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789044218, $23.99/£15.99.

Myth and Mayhem

Ben Burgis & Conrad Bongard Hamilton & Matthew McManus & Marion Trejo

Jordan Peterson rocketed to fame in the 2010s and has preached on everything from the evils of postmodern neo-Marxism to the mating habits of lobsters ever since then. The Left has since leveled many criticisms about the Canadian psychologist, characterizing him as everything from an apologist for the alt-right to simply not being interesting or profound.

Written by four authors who each look at a different element of his thought, Myth and Mayhem shows why taking Peterson seriously doesn't mean embracing him.

Includes an introduction by Slavoj Žižek.

Printed in Utopia

Ed Simon

Printed in Utopia examines the bloody era of the Renaissance in all of its contradictions and moments of utopian possibility. In sailing to Utopia, we must first chart our ships through the Renaissance to discover our radical intellectual origins.

"From rambunctious Restoration poetry to sceptical Shakespearean metaphysics, Printed in Utopia presents a unity of historical essays at once ludic and lucid. Ed Simon writes about faith with a vivacious originality, celebrating the radically eternal essence of the Renaissance." Russell Bennetts, Editor and Founder of Berfrois

Removing the Stalin Stain

William Briggs

Can Marxism emerge from the long shadow cast by Stalinism, and challenge capitalism?

William Briggs gives a rousing defence of Marxism, calling for a return of the working class to the centre of potential struggle. Briggs seeks to heal the damage done to Marxism, in the name of Marxism, over generations past.

"...presents a clearly argued and outward-facing Marxist analysis of contemporary politics." Terrell Carver, Professor of Political Theory, University of Bristol, UK

Shakespeare for Snowflakes

Ian Burrows

Drawing on plays by Shakespeare, Sarah Kane, Sophocles, Samuel Beckett, and others, this book examines the ways in which these dramatists manipulated the actor's body to demand laughter and/or sympathy. Ian Burrows shows how these strategies can be thought about beyond the stage-space: in the classroom, in the media, and in relation to the social construction of 'snowflake culture' as a 21st century phenomenon.

"...Burrows turns controversy in on itself, offering mature, important reflection on what it means to find empathy in the ridiculous or to mock the trauma of others." Peter Kirwan, University of Nottingham

Zero Books; 2020-09-25; Aesthetics/Popular Culture/Drama; Pb-9781789041613, $19.95/£12.99, 160pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789041620, $15.99/£10.99.

Student as Producer

Mike Neary

Student as Producer brings critical theory to life in a contribution to the dynamic, emerging genre of critical higher education studies. It is for students and teachers who want to change the world through critical pedagogy and popular education.

Mike Neary's account finds itself set in a particular moment of time: between the student protests and urban riots that erupted in England in 2010-2011 and the 2017 General Election, during which students and young people played a significant role by protesting the politics of austerity and by supporting the politics of Corbynism.

Who Makes the Fash

Luca Carboni

Originating from the desire of conceptualising an antifascist artistic practice, this book investigates fascism in Italy and its relationships with futurism and neoliberalism.

"... Who Makes the Fash is a brilliantly executed genealogy of the Italian far-right from the perspective of cultural struggle, but it goes further, making a case for the importance of partisan activity for artists and cultural workers, lest the tired avowals of liberal subjectivity lead us directly to the gardens of 'CasaWeiwei'." Marina Vishmidt, Goldsmith University

Zeitgeist Nostalgia

Alessandro Gandini

"From Trump's backward-looking promise to "make America great again" to the hipster's fondness for a pre-industrial age of craft, nostalgia saturates our world. Gandini's book is a remarkable and insightful guide to this phenomenon, laying out the deep roots of its origins and setting out the contours of its limits." Nick Srnicek, co-author of *Inventing the Future: Postcapitalism and a World Without Work

"Swift's explanation is that too much of the left is fundamentally unserious. It has no real dog in the great social fights. Unlike previous lefts, it is educated, wealthier and holds elite values, which distances it from the lives of ordinary people. Politics for the modern left is a hobby." David Aaronovitch, The Times

Divine CEO, The

Geoff Thompson

The Divine CEO is a no-nonsense book about the hierarchy of spiritual ascent. It comes from the pen of acclaimed writer Geoff Thompson; former bouncer, world ranking martial arts guru, and BAFTA winning screenwriter. Guy Ritchie once said that Geoff Thompson is 'a spiritual trouble maker' because he has taken his practice outside the safety of theology, and tested it in the practical crucible of the competitive world. This is a rare book for the spiritual pragmatist.

Divine Consciousness

Reena Kumarasingham

Does Divine Consciousness exist only with the Son of God, or within all of us?

Two thousand years ago, a rich myriad of Christian teachings emerged after the death of Jesus. Two pillars rose above the din; two churches, two structures, two leaders: James, the Brother of Jesus, and St. Paul, the Evangelist.

These accounts offer intimate knowledge of what motivated and moved James and St. Paul, how and why they built and developed the twin pillars of Christianity, and what happened to their respective churches. It is now time to illuminate the secret stories of the Early Christian Church and the Divine Consciousness.

Fools' Paradise

Nicholas Hagger

In Fools' Paradise, a mock-heroic poem on Brexit which complements his masque King Charles the Wise, Nicholas Hagger presents the most important British event since the Second World War: the Brexiteers' struggle to wrest control of the UK's laws, borders, money and trade from the EU and turn the UK into a more prosperous paradise. In 16 cantos and an epilogue of heroic couplets with an epic tone he narrates the 2018 Chequers compromise and its aftermath.

Kabbalah and Healing

Maggy Whitehouse

Ancient wisdom for the modern world, demonstrating that 'incurable' merely means 'curable from within'.

What Maggy Whitehouse has discovered, over more than a quarter of a century of studying, teaching and writing books on Kabbalah, is that, used as a tool for inspiration, Kabbalah is a magical loom on which we can weave our healing, and from that healing, we become an agent of healing for the World. Kabbalah tells us exactly where, when, how and why we may be out of alignment with health, finances and relationships and, just as importantly, how to realign ourselves.

O-BOOKS; 2020-07-31; Happiness/Kabbalah & Mysticism/Ancient Mysteries & Controversial Knowledge; Pb-9781789040692, $18.95/£11.99, 232pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789040708, $9.99/£5.99.

Scavengers of Beauty

Philippe Sibaud

In this unconventional work, Philippe Sibaud explores the symbolism behind the 1969 landing on the Moon. More than fifty years after this seminal event, and whilst the Moon is attracting renewed interest, the author offers a bold new interpretation of the iconic Apollo mission.

Was the Apollo landing the ultimate triumph of solar consciousness over the ancient lunar ways, a concrete enactment of the god Apollo mythically slaying the mother dragon at Delphi, or can the whole venture be seen as the sacred union of Sun and Moon, birthing a new vision at a time of great need?

Spiritual Awakening Made Simple

Andrew Seaton

A concise, unified and practical formulation that will help you to awaken to your own true nature as peace, contentment and connectedness with all life.

The book explains how, beginning in our infancy, we experience a spiritual forgetting. The mind creates abstract interpretations of the world and who we are. These conditioned interpretations become self-fulfilling and create our life experience, our karma. Learn how to see the world as it is in reality, rather than through the distorting filters of the conditioned mind.

O-BOOKS; 2020-07-31; Mind & Body/Inspiration & Personal Growth/Spiritual; Pb-9781789044720, $12.95/£7.99, 112pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781789044737, $6.99/£3.99.

Heart of Tantric Sex

Diana Richardson

Bestselling classic by Diana Richardson, one of the world's leading authorities on human sexuality.

"After many years of exploration, Diana Richardson found that the ancient practice of Tantra, with its unique, intelligent approach to sex, had the effect of enhancing intimacy and deepening love. Here she has adapted Tantra for modern Western lovers in a practical, sympathetic way. Tantric Sex can transform your experience into a more sensual, loving and fulfilling one. One of the most revolutionary books on sexuality ever written."

Shine On

David Ditchfield & J S Jones

The near-death (NDE) experience is one of the most astonishing phenomena in the history of man. What if, as a result of an NDE, someone who couldn't paint or write music was suddenly able to compose and perform classical symphonies and execute paintings like a highly skilled artist? After his NDE, this is exactly what happened to David Ditchfield. Shine On is his story.

"Shine On is one of the most gripping accounts of a near-death experience that I have read." Dr Raymond A. Moody, psychologist and philosopher, author of Life after Life

Resilience: Virtual Teams

Carlos Valdes-Dapena

In the face of the COVID-19 virus, organizations large and small are shuttering offices and factories, requiring as much work as possible be done from peoples' homes. The book draws on the insights of the author's earlier title, Lessons from Mars, providing a set of the powerful tools and exercises developed within the Mars Corporation to create high performance teams. These tools have been adapted for teams suddenly forced to work apart, in many cases for the first time.

Chronos Crime Chronicles - The Death of Amy Robsart

Sarah-Beth Watkins

Amy Robsart was the wife of Queen Elizabeth I's favourite, Robert Dudley, later Earl of Leicester. In September 1560, she was found dead, her neck broken, at the bottom of a flight of stairs at Cumnor Place. Amy was 28 when she died and her marriage to Dudley had been one of great absences and loneliness. Some said she was ill, others that she was desperate. More sinister rumours talked of murder. In this book we look at Amy's unsolved death and examine who had motive to commit such a dark deed. Was it an accident, suicide or murder?

The Death of Amy Robsart is the first volume in an exciting new historical true crime series from Chronos Books.

Hermine: an Empress in Exile

Moniek Bloks

Hermine Reuss of Greiz is perhaps better known as the second wife of the Kaiser (Emperor Wilhelm II of Germany) whom she married shortly after the death of his first wife Auguste Viktoria and while he was in exile in the Netherlands. She was by then a widow herself with young children, and known to be ambitious about a return to power, her husband insisted on her being called 'Empress'.

To achieve her goal, she turned to the most powerful man in Germany at the time, Adolf Hitler. Unfortunately, her dream was not realised as Hitler refused to restore the monarchy and with the death of Wilhelm in 1941, Hermine was forced to return her first husband's lands

Lady Katherine Knollys: The Unacknowledged Daughter of King Henry VIII

Sarah-Beth Watkins

Katherine Knollys was Mary Boleyn's first child, born in 1524 when Mary was having an affair with King Henry VIII. Katherine spent her life unacknowledged as the king's daughter, yet she was given prime appointments at court as maid of honour to both Anne of Cleves and Katherine Howard. She married Francis Knollys when she was 16 and went on to become mother to many successful men and women at court including Lettice Knollys who created a scandal when she married Sir Robert Dudley, the queen's favourite.

*"All religions evolve, and Christianity is evolving rapidly today. Don MacGregor's book is a lucid and thoughtful guide to this process, and shows how the essential core teachings of Christianity can be disentangled from unhelpful interpretations that stand in the way of a living Christian faith in the twenty-first century.
